Course Outline

Basics: We will meet approximately every other week, but I need to make some small adjustments to the calendar in April when I plan to attend the SAA meetings in Honolulu and the Worked Bone Research Group meetings in China. By this time you should have identified a second reader for your senior thesis, and you should be well along in your research. Your grade for this semester will be assigned by your readers. I am here as a resource person, and I am more than willing to help you in any way I can. Please note that we can alter the schedule and topics to meet your needs.

Important dates:

Friday April 12th: Undergraduate Research Conference. I would encourage you all to participate. If you have received a DURF award to support your research, you must take part in the conference.

Ca. April 26th: Nominations for the Borgmann Prize are due. If you would like to be considered for this prize, you must submit your thesis to your readers well before this deadline.

May 14th: Your thesis is due to your readers.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

1/30  Introductions; for 2/6, please give me a list of your advisor and second reader and a ca. 200 word summary of your research.

2/6  Progress reports

2/20  Styles of references and citations

3/6  Progress reports

3/20  SPRING BREAK

3/27  Preparing Powerpoint presentations and posters

4/3  Rehearsals for the undergraduate research conference presentations
